

Unrest in Eden

By Florence Byham Weinberg

Father Ignaz Pfefferkorn, ex-S.J., released in January, 1778, and destitute after ten years of Spanish imprisonment, begs his way across France to his home in the Rhineland. He arrives in Unkel-on-the-Rhine to find factional strife and ultimately murder in his hoped-for paradise.

He is recruited to solve the crime, aided by unlikely helpers: a wealthy Cologne socialite and a head smuggler. He succeeds, only to find himself caught in the cross-fire of the French Revolutionary Army's invasion of his homeland.

Reviewer comments:

"...Weinberg's gripping novel portrays, with historical precision, the cultural, political and spiritual situation in the Rhineland of the 18th-century. For the general reader, especially those with historical interests, this book is highly recommended."

~ Rudolf Vollmer, City Historian, Unkel-am-Rhein

About the author

A native of Alamogordo, NM, Florence traveled extensively with her military family during World War II. Travels continued in Canada, France, Spain and Germany, after marriage to scholar-critic Kurt Weinberg. After earning her PhD, she taught for twenty-two years at St. John Fisher College, Rochester, NY, and ten at Trinity University, San Antonio. She continues to travel and write, enjoying riding, hiking, swimming, reading, and good conversation.

Unrest in Eden is available for pre-order through your favorite local bookstore and online booksellers. Copies can also be ordered from Baker & Taylor, Ingram, the publisher, Twilight Times Books, P. O. Box 3340, Kingsport, TN 37664 and via <http://twilighttimesbooks.com/>.

Cover artwork by Ardy M. Scott

Historical trade paperback

Retail price $18.95. 5.5x8.5 294 pages

ISBN: 978-1-60619-118-7

<http://twilighttimesbooks.com>